CHAPLAIN: Prayer offered.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Record the vote.

CLERK: Quorum present, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Do you have any corrections to the Journal?

CLERK: I have no corrections, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Do you have any items for #4?

CLERK: Very briefly. I have a notice of hearing from the Committee on Committees.

And a lobby registration report for March 21 through March 26.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Before we start on Final Reading, I would like to introduce in the North balcony three students from the second and fourth and first and seventh grade, District #33, Frontier County, and, ladies and gentlemen, this is the smallest school in Nebraska. Sandra Huber is the teacher and would you all please stand so we may say good morning to you. Where is the group? Right up there. From Senator Barrett's District 16 twelfth graders, the senior class in Government Studies from St. Ann's Catholic High School at Lexington, Nebraska. Mr. Roger Lucas, their Government Studies teacher and two other sponsors. Where are you located? Hold up your hands please so we can say good morning to you. Will all legislators please take their seats so we can proceed with Final Reading? Will you please take your seats so we can start on Final Reading? We can't start until you do. The Clerk will read on Final Reading LB 423.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Kelly had amendments to the bill. I understand he wishes to withdraw those amendments. Senator Kelly, do you want to withdraw your amendments on that? All right.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Hearing no objections, so ordered.

CLERK: Final Reading of LB 423.

SPEAKER MARVEL: All provisions of law having been complied with, the question is, shall the bill pass? Those in favor
